Power to object

Any person may deliver to the registrar, on objection to the removal on any one or more of the following grounds:

- That the company is still carrying on business or there is other reason for it to continue in existence; or
- That the company is a party to legal proceedings; or
- That the company is in receivership, or liquidation, or both; or
- That the person is a creditor, or a shareholder, or a person who has an undischarged claim against the company; or
- That the person believes that there exists, and intends to pursue a right of action on behalf of the company under part IX of this Act; or
- That, for any other reason, it would not be just and equitable to remove the company from the New Zealand register.
